Small Farms Week Essay Contest

Small Farms Week
small farms, big impact
March 25–31, 2018

Open to Local Middle School Students

NC Cooperative Extension, Nash County is hosting an essay contest in honor of Small Farms Week. This contest is open to local Middle School students including those attending, Nash-Rocky Mount Public Schools, local charter or private schools, and home-schooled students in grades 6 - 8.

Small Farms Week Essay Contest Rules

Essay must be on one of the following topics:

- Why are small farmers so important to our local economy
- How do small farmers help protect the environment
- How do small farmers help support local public health initiatives
- Small Farmer Spotlight (tell us all about a local farmer)

Winner will receive a North Carolina Agriculture Prize Pack! With the winning essay featured on our NC Cooperative Extension website & newsletter.

Essay criteria are as follow:

- Essay must be between 250 - 400 words
- Essay can be typed or neatly hand-written
- Essays can be mailed, dropped off, or emailed to our office

All essays must be turned into our ofice by 5 pm on Monday, March 26. We will announce the winner on Thursday, March 29. We are located at the Nash County Agriculture Center at 1006 Eastern Ave., #102 in Nashville. For more information, please contact Traci Dixon at (252) 459-9810 or email traci_dixon@ncsu.edu.

NC COOPERATIVE EXTENSION N.C. A&T STATE UNIVERSITY NC STATE UNIVERSITY

NC State University and N.C. A&T State University are collectively committed to positive action to secure equal opportunity and prohibit discrimination and harassment regardless of age, color, disability, family and marital status, gender identity, genetic information, national origin, political beliefs, race, religion, sex (including pregnancy), sexual orientation and veteran status. NC State, N.C. A&T, U.S. Department of Agriculture, and local governments cooperating.